Sprechen Sie Deutsch? Over 100 million people around the globe claim it as a native language. Gain access to the language, culture, and marketplace of one of the largest economies in the world! Spoken by Einstein, Freud, and Mozart, German is the second most commonly used scientific language and continues to play a significant role in major disciplines such as music, art, philosophy, and literature. Broaden your intellectual and professional horizons and discover the fascinating culture of German-speaking Europe. Begin your journey with German 104, the course for beginning students of German with no, or very little, prior knowledge of German.

It is the first course in the sequence of KU German courses aimed at developing students’ balanced knowledge of the German language and cultural phenomena, including:

- German-speaking countries and the EU: geography, society, politics, education
- Products, practices, and perspectives in German-speaking countries: holidays and celebrations, living arrangements, hobbies and interests, studying abroad
- How to do things in German: greetings and farewells, talking about yourself and family, daily plans, likes and dislikes, clothing and shopping
- Satisfies Goal 4 Outcome 2 (AE42), U Undesignated elective (U)

Interested? Enroll in one of four sections offered Fall 2016:

MTWRF • Wescoe 1049
9:00 – 9:50am • 10:00 – 10:50am • 11:00 – 11:50am • 12:00 – 12:50pm

QUESTIONS? Contact Dr. Andrea Meyertholen, Course Coordinator, Germanic Languages & Literatures at ameyerth@ku.edu

WWW.GERMANIC.KU.EDU