

JUMP BACK INTO GERMAN THIS FALL WITH GERM 301!

This course is designed to provide you with extensive practice in speaking and writing in German combined with a review of selected grammar topics. While the primary emphasis is on writing, we will also work to develop the other language skills of reading, speaking, communicating and listening. All discussions, whether formally as a class or in small groups, will be conducted in German. Our readings and discussions will cover a broad range of cultural and historical topics relevant to the German-speaking world today, including:

- Travel habits and vacation trends in German-speaking Europe
- German politics and the environment
- Contemporary immigrant culture in Germany
- Literature, art, music, and film

Interested? Enroll in one of two sections offered Fall 2016:

MWF 1:00 – 1:50 pm

QUESTIONS? Contact Dr. Ari Linden at ari.linden@ku.edu or
Dr. Andrea Meyertholen at ameyerth@ku.edu.

The prerequisite for GERM 301 is the successful completion of German 202 or placement by examination. GERM 301 is not open to native speakers of German.

